Sulphur City's Rod Run is based at the Okataina Educational and Recreational Facilities

The camp is set in Department of Conservation Reserve Land. The bush setting has Lockwood style dormitories and ablution blocks. No pets allowed in the area. Children could bring a torch and warm clothing to go for a night walk to see glow worms.

The Dormitories are divided into blocks of four bunks. Mattresses are provided but all other linen is necessary including pillows/sleeping bags. Warm bedding will be needed if the weather is cold. Separate toilet, shower and changing blocks are close by.

*Bring your own caravan or tent
(No power to the sites)
If you require a caravan
